What's new:

Posted on Monday, October 19th, 2012 at 4:30 pm. Isn't it interesting, that just a couple of short months ago Beasty and I left Ubi for the sound of the big blue ocean? I must admit it was a bit like being let go, but to stop at a decent point with my job, I guess. The now two weeks long trials for Ubi are finally over and we are sitting at our favourite boarders in Fusch on previous weekend. But enough about me and my stories. First of all we want to express our gratitude about the help and support from everyone in Ubi HQ that was giving us to actually make this all go through. Our original plan for this trip was to be for the entire team to meet and greet at Ubi's HQ during the time we were going to arrive, but due to the travel plans this could not be done. So our trip went up in the air at that point. We just could not miss a chance to say thanks to all the team mates who where either in Fusch or in Old School for helping us to have the time of our lives. Ofcourse we would like to single out every single one of the guys that we got chance to say hi to or see around. We have been teaching quite some pretty new talents, like Mr EOS the healer, Kjeld, Veesh the crazy pvp star-gazey kite pilot and Mr Moho who still pengalows the rainbows and rainbows to the blue skies. Special thanks to Mids and BEEs, I think we would all become friends there. There were also quite a few of the older members showing love for Beasty and ME. JMK the goldsmith and his backup were our tour guides, without it would have been quite a dull trip. Also Gevik and Heis are always helping us around the romm, even if they are not there in person, via video chat. Looking back with a smile I can not list all the players we had the chance to meet, but like many others have said there is no Ubi without you. So all of you great Ubi players and fellow travellers, we are now creating a new more permanent Ubi team house, so hop over and join the fun, events, games and hang outs! I'm probably one of the last people on New Eden to be doing a Play-by-Post
